

WHAT IS MAN IN MOTION?

Man In Motion is a network of over 50 male dance professionals designed to fill a specific need in dance education. Services offered by the network include: providing your studio or organization with dance instructors and choreographers, arranging master classes and workshops, and delivering featured guest artists who are experienced and exceptionally trained.

OUR SERVICES

We have a range of affordable services that can be tailored to fit the needs of your studio.

- Dance teacher subs
- Master classes and workshops
- Choreography for competition
- Full-time and part-time instructors
- In-studio dance conventions
- Private coaching and more!

OUR INSTRUCTORS

Many of our instructors are degreed professionals who have attended programs, colleges, and universities such as, The Juilliard School, The Ailey/Fordham BFA Program, The School of American Ballet, and more. In addition, many of our instructors have worked on Broadway, and have also made appearances on Fox TV's So You Think You Can Dance, NBC's America's Got Talent, and many more!

“Man In Motion has helped in a pinch to find quality instructors who can really connect with my students.”
